COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BULLITT DISTRICT COURT
CASE NO. 23-M-114
HON JUDGE JOHN KELLEY

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY PLAINTIFF

VS. MOTION TO DISMISS FOR DOUBLE JEOPARDY

KENDRICK WILSON DEFENDANT

* Electronically Filed ****

NOTICE

Please take notice that Defendant, by and through undersigned counsel, will bring the following motion for a hearing in the Bullitt District Court at already scheduled appearance on 9:00am on 15 March 2024, or at the earliest convenience of the Court.

MOTION TO DISMISS FOR DOUBLE JEOPARDY

The Defendant, Kendrick Wilson, by counsel hereby moves the Court to dismiss the above captioned case that alleges misdemeanor charges of Assault 3rd Communicable Bodily Fluid (KRS 508.025), Disorderly Conduct 2nd Degree (KRS 525.060), and Menacing (KRS 508.050). The case as charged stands in violation of double jeopardy principles of United States and Kentucky Constitutions as well as settled Kentucky law. This is because Mr. Wilson was already held in criminal contempt for the conduct at question.

Per discovery, all the events in question occurred in the same Bullitt Circuit court room on 13 February 2024. The citation states that Mr. Wilson engaged in physically offensive actions including cursing and spitting at the Honorable Judge Burress. The citation also alleges that Bullitt County Sheriff's Office (BCSO) Deputy Payne came into contact with Mr. Wilson's saliva. Review of the courtroom video indicates Judge Burress held Mr. Wilson in direct criminal contempt for the conduct.

Filed 23-M-00114 03/06/2024 Paulita Keith, Bullitt Circuit Clerk

ARGUMENT

I. Criminal Contempt Can Act as a Bar to Prosecution on Double Jeopardy Grounds Per Settled Kentucky Law.

"Just as the United States Supreme Court found it obvious, we have no hesitation in declaring that the protections of § 13 of the Kentucky Constitution attach in non-summary criminal contempt proceedings just as they do in other criminal prosecutions." Commonwealth v. Burge, 947 S.W.2d 805 (Ky. 1996).

"Criminal contempt can be either direct or indirect. A direct contempt is committed in the presence of the court and is an affront to the dignity of the court. It may be punished summarily by the court, and requires no fact-finding function, as all the elements of the offense are matters within the personal knowledge of the court. In re Terry, 128 U.S. 289, 9 S.Ct. 77, 32 L.Ed. 405 (1888)." Burge, 947 S.W.2d 805 (Ky. 1996).

The Kentucky Constitution and Kentucky case law indicates direct criminal contempt can act as a bar to prosecution on double jeopardy grounds.

II. Further Prosecution is Barred in this Case Because the Conduct was Covered in the Direct Criminal Contempt.

"Double jeopardy does not occur when a person is charged with two crimes arising from the same course of conduct, as long as each statute "requires proof of an additional fact which the other does not." Blockburger v. United States, 284 U.S. 299, 304, 52 S.Ct. 180, 182, 76 L.Ed. 306, 309 (1932). KRS 505.020(1)(a) and (2)(a) codify this rule." Burge, 947 S.W.2d 805 (Ky. 1996). The Blockburger rule was expanded by the United States Supreme Court to include a "same conduct" test that "redefined the concept of a lesser included offense for double jeopardy purposes and thereby expanded the Blockburger "same elements" test." Burge, 947 S.W.2d 805 (Ky. 1996).

In the above captioned case, Mr. Wilson was ordered in direct contempt by Judge Buress at three points during the hearing. The last contempt order occurred as Mr. Wilson was being escorted out of the courtroom. The contempt was punishment for the conduct in the courtroom. As discovery shows, the charges in this case solely result from actions in the courtroom and were addressed by the direct contempt orders. The charged crimes do not include elements or conduct that required additional proof to the contempt. Mr. Kendrick also had knowledge that the contempt orders existed as he was present in the courtroom when issued.

CONCLUSION

Criminal contempt acts as a bar to prosecution for the same conduct Mr. Wilson is already held in direct contempt. Mr. Wilson is held in the Bullitt County Detention Center for the events that occurred in the Bullitt Courtroom on 13 February 2023. The contempt sentences encompassed all the conduct related to the charges in the above captioned case. There are no distinct elements or conduct in the charged offenses not already addressed by the direct contempt conviction.

WHEREFORE, the defense requests that this court dismiss Bullitt District case 23-M-114 as requested above or hold a hearing at 9:00am on 15 March 2024.
